

Graham Hoinville

my life in motor sport

This book tells the life story of Graham Hoinville, one of the greatest contributors to Australian motor sport ever. He competed in races and trials in an MG TC which he still owns. He made a great contribution to the development of the National Competition Rules under which motor sport is run in Australia.

As a navigator he won the inaugural Australian Rally Championship, the first Southern Cross International Rally and numerous Alpine and Experts Trials. He competed and finished in the East African Safari Rally in 1962 and the London to Sydney marathon in 1968.

He administered Historic motor racing for the Confederation of Australian Motor Sport (CAMS) for 20 years. He competed with distinction in historic racing.

His remarkable career has been recognised with the the highest honour that Australian motor sport can confer, the CAMS Award of Merit; he was awarded the Order of Australia medal in for his contribution to motor sport, and in 2008 was recognised by the Federation Internationale l'Automobile (FIA) for his service on the world Historic Motor Sport Commission.

This is a book about a man who was always popular and highly respected in his chosen sport, and who achieved recognition and results that would be the envy of any sportsman.

It is a book about a true gentleman and his remarkable life in motor sport.

About the Author

Bob Watson is a former champion rally driver, Life member of CAMS and an inaugural inductee into the Victorian and Australia Rally Halls of Fame. He has written books on the history of the Light Car Club of Australia (Phillip Island to Fangio), the Austin Seven Club (Going Strong) and his autobiography, In Control. He has known Graham Hoinville as a friend since the 1960s

